

ELEVATE YOUR FOOD PACKAGING

VERSATILE PACKAGING SOLUTIONS

We offer a full spectrum of packaging options tailored to the unique needs of the food market:

Flexible Packaging—Lightweight, protective, and highly customizable — ideal for snacks, sauces, frozen meals, and dry goods. Engineered for barrier performance and shelf efficiency.

Shrink Sleeves—Deliver 360° branding with tamper-evident security. Perfect for condiments, and refrigerated items where moisture resistance and impact matter.

Label Applicators & Extended Content Labels—Automate with precision. Pair your labels with Fortis applicators or extend communication through booklet-style labeling for nutritional or promotional messaging.

Pressure Sensitive Labels—Vibrant, durable labels that hold up under refrigeration and moisture. Available with embellishments and tactile finishes to bring your brand to life.

Folding Cartons—Premium structure and presentation for frozen, bakery, and ready-to-eat foods. Designed to protect, stack, and stand out on-shelf.

FORTIS KNOWS FOOD

In the Food industry, packaging must do more than protect your product — it must tell your story, ensure safety, and drive shelf appeal. Fortis Solutions Group brings decades of experience crafting packaging that performs under pressure and shines in the aisle.

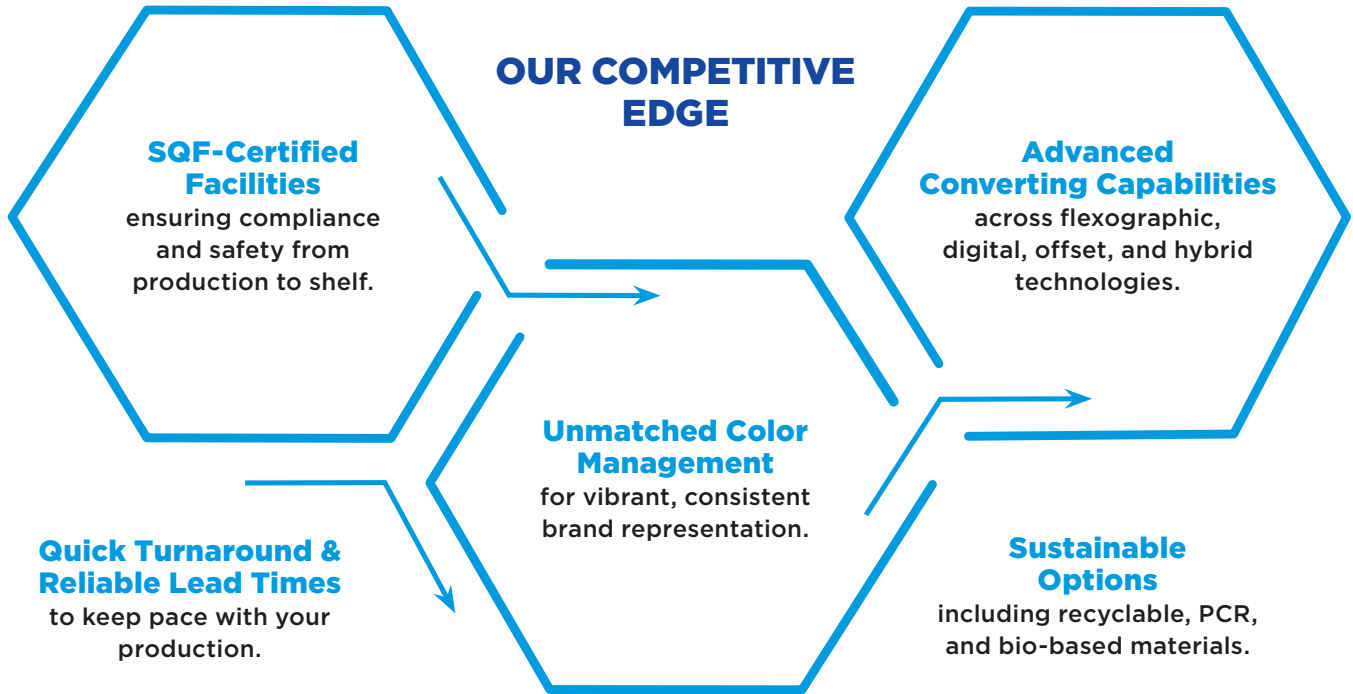

We understand the diverse conditions your products face — from cold storage to heat sealing — and we engineer the right packaging constructions to ensure durability, compliance, and brand consistency every time.
